To Whom it May Concern:

On behalf of our partner families, board, and staff, I want to express sincere gratitude for the time Matthew Lutey spent volunteering with the New Orleans Area Habitat for Humanity ReStore on May 29th, 2018

At Habitat, we are dependent upon unpaid labor, and we fully appreciate the sacrifices and efforts of every volunteer. Their time and dedication are invaluable gifts to the city of New Orleans.

Each Habitat home makes a lasting impact in the life of a family and a community. As simple, decent Habitat homes replace dilapidated structures and empty lots, stronger and safer communities evolve. The credit for this success goes to our volunteers. We could not realize our mission without the ongoing support of people like Matthew.

With heartfelt appreciation,
